ABOUT PETER STORM

Peter Storm joined Zacco in September 2015 after having worked for seven years in a patent department within a large company, and has also worked as a court secretary at the Swedish District Court. He is also a Certified Paralegal from Påhlmans Handelsinsitut.

At Zacco, Peter is working as a senior IP coordinator. Peter advises clients on administrative aspects of all patenting issues in all jurisdictions, and deals with all administrative matters relating to patenting, including filing and prosecution of patent applications. He has considerable experience from handling opposition and appeal cases.

From a client perspective, Peter also advises clients regarding their internal processes for administrative handling of IP rights.

Peter is also involved in process development within Zacco, and works with adapting Zacco's routines and Case Management systems to current legislation.
