ABOUT MALIN THUNBERG MCCANN

Malin has a longstanding experience in advising clients regarding legal, strategic and business aspects of intellectual property, domain names and marketing law. She counsels and assists our clients with the protection of their trademarks and designs by registration and enforcement of rights through contracts and legal actions.

Her practice includes global IP portfolio management, drafting and negotiating agreements, IP strategy advice, enforcement regarding counterfeits and other infringements as well as advice relating to marketing law.

Malin has a law degree from Lund University (LL. M.1993) and a Master of European law, also from Lund University (1995). She joined Zacco in November 2008.

Before joining Zacco she was an advocate at the IP specialist law firm Nihlmark Zacharoff AB in Stockholm (1997-2008). She is a member of various national and international associations active within the field of intellectual property.

Malin is featured as a Recommended Individual in the WTR 1000 by the World Trademark Review. She has also been recommended individually in the Legal 500 EMEA ranking for 2023.
